Defendant appeared before the Court on July 10, 2019 pursuant to a warrant for arrest issued commanding Defendant to show cause why his probation should not be revoked as set forth in the Petition filed May 8, 2019.

Defendant appeared with counsel and after being advised of his constitutional rights, admitted violating the conditions set forth in the terms of his probation and offered evidence in mitigation. Accordingly, the Court found that Defendant violated the terms and conditions of probation and Defendant's probation is ordered revoked.

Without objection by Defendant the Court proceeded to sentencing after allowing Defendant and his counsel an opportunity to make a statement. Defendant is sentenced to a term of imprisonment of sixty (60) days with no supervision to follow.
